. A short time since, a young man of prepossessing appearance arrived in our city and soon after fell a victim to the charms of a Mormon maiden, whose family he visited frequently, but could not prevail upon the "old folks" to allow him to accompany the young lady outside of the family circle. Finally becoming desperate and believing "every thing fair in love or war"-he joined the Mormon Church, and the next day after passing through the trying ordeal of the Endow ment House, presented himself before the obstinate Father, and in the most confident and triumphant manner an-nounced his midden change of heart.
